

Multi PASS

Portes du Soleil

The Multi Pass takes centre stage again for its second summer outing.

After its popular reception among holidaymakers last year, the Multi Pass once again offers a wide range of activities for just 1€ per day.

A number of new additions are set to make the Multi Pass even more attractive, with some 30 participating activity providers offering at least a 20 % discount on selected pastimes.

The Multi Pass Portes du Soleil works just the same as in 2009, so it's just as easy for you and your guests.

Nonetheless, this brochure contains handy information about the Multi Pass which is also available online at :

Multi Pass presentation

What is the Multi Pass?

The Multi Pass is a leisure card which gives holders unlimited access to a range of activities during their stay: summer lifts for walkers, pools and supervised bathing lakes, tennis, ice skating, holiday trains, cultural sites and public transport (Balad'Aulps Bus, Colombus, scheduled LIHSA routes in the Vallée d'Aulps and Vallée d'Abondance and services from Troistorrents run by Chablais et Transports Publics du Chablais).

Who is the Multi Pass suitable for?

What are the different Multi Pass options?

The Multi Pass is aimed at all those who want to enjoy mountain pastimes without paying the earth.

Three options are available:

- 1 € (1.50 CHF) / day of your holiday, when staying with a participating accommodation provider
- 6 € (9 CHF) / day when not staying when not staying with a participating accommodation provider
- 50 € (75 CHF) for the season Multi Pass (non-transferable + holder's photo)

Note: A one-off 3 € deposit is also payable for the "hands-free" card which accompanies the 1 € and 6 € Multi Pass. This deposit will be refunded by the issuing ticket office upon the return of the "hands-free" card.

When can the Multi Pass be used?

The offer runs from 12th June to 12th September 2010 subject to availability and participating activity providers' schedules.

New for 2010

- Lots of new activities on offer with at least a 20 % discount for valid Multi Pass holders
- MTB riders with a Portes du Soleil liftpass who stay with participating accommodation providers get free access to all Multi Pass activities for as long as their liftpass is valid.

Can paragliders use the summer lifts for walkers if they have a Multi Pass?

Yes, of course!

Accommodation providers: accreditation

How much is it to join the Multi Pass scheme? Who do I have to pay my annual fee to?

Membership is 15 € (22 CHF) per listed bed.

For 2009 Multi Pass members, the fee is only 10 € (15 CHF) per bed if payment is received before 11th June 2010.

For first-time members, the fee is only 10 € (15 CHF) per listed bed if payment is received by 30th April 2010 at the latest.

Membership payments should be made at your local tourist office which will be happy to provide further information and transmit any questions you may have to the Multi Pass Portes du Soleil Association.

What are the conditions of Multi Pass membership?

In France:

- Members must be registered with their tourist office, unless they have special dispensation from the tourist office President for statutory reasons (some tourist office statutes prevent tour operators or grouped accommodation providers from registering with them)
- Members must pay the relevant 15 € or 10 € fee according to their circumstances (see above).
- Members must pay the holiday tax ("la taxe de séjour").

In Switzerland:

- Members must pay their joining fee of 15 € (22 CHF) or 10 € (15 CHF) according to their circumstances (see above).
- Members must declare their holiday tax ("la taxe de séjour") every month at their local tourist office.

What is the Multi Pass definition of bed numbers?

It is deemed to be the total listed sleeping capacity of your accommodation.

As an example, a double bed, a sofa-bed and a camping pitch are reckoned to be two beds each.

The sleeping capacity you should declare is the figure you provided on your official prefectoral document, which you also lodged with the tourist office.

The Multi Pass for people on holiday

How do tourists identify accredited accommodation providers?

A list of partner accommodation providers/operators is available online at www.lemultipass.com

Accredited operators can also be identified by the Multi Pass sticker reading:

“Hébergeur – Multi Pass Portes du Soleil”.

How can tourists find out about the activities on offer with the Multi Pass?

An activity guide will be available in all tourist offices and at liftpass ticket offices.

This information is also online at www.lemultipass.com

Can tourists buy the Multi Pass when they want?

Guests are expected to request the Multi Pass for the duration of their stay from accredited accommodation providers.

A family staying for 6 days may not purchase the Multi Pass for only 3 days.

Is there a minimum stay associated with the Multi Pass?

Guests must stay at least one night with participating accommodation providers to qualify for the Multi Pass.

Moreover, guests staying with accredited accommodation providers can, if they wish, purchase a 2-day Multi Pass for 2 €.

Multi Pass 2010 advertising

Once again this year, nearly 300 000 € is budgeted for advertising in France and Switzerland.

This media campaign involves:

- flyers in special editions entitled “vacances en montagne” published by L’Express, L’Equipe Magazine, Le Figaro, Alpes Magazine, Loisirs.ch, TV Régions...
- a heavy internet presence with a series of sponsored links and display ads
- a far-reaching regional PR campaign to encourage day-trippers
- the creation of fresh visual advertising to reinforce these activities.
